REVIEW

Every year gives us new and important information regarding the Barnes Family, clears up points before uncertain, and enables us to discover errors in our previous work.

We are pleased to announce that a very complete investigation, made at the instigation of Byron Barnes Horton of Sheffield, Penn., regarding the ancestry of the Long Island Barnses, shows conclusively that only Charles was a son of William of Eastwinch, England. Our readers will therefore note that William Barnes 5, Page 5, year book No. 1 and Joshua Barnes 7, Page 6, are not longer to be considered as brothers of Charles, nor even related to each other. The five sons of William of Eastwinch, are shown to be William who died soon after his father in England, Charles, Owen, Thomas and Edward, all of which excepting Charles are accounted for in England. The above research strengthens the supposition that our ancestor, William I, Page 28, of No. 1, was son of Charles.

ERRORS NOTED IN YEAR BOOK NO. 1.

The only errors noted in the geneological records, Pages 9 to 38 are on Page 31, after 68 Benjamin Baldwin read:

69 Gideon Baldwin, b. Aug. 3, 1730.

and Phineas Baldwin, b. Feb. 23, 1733, omitted.

and on Page 19, No. 42 read Mercy Barnes not Mary.

In the ancestral records hastily prepared will be noted the following:

Page 38, No. 1. Third line read married for Unm.

No. 2. Third line read Haas not Hass.

No. 2. Eighth line read Granville not Grenville.

Page 40, No. 9. Second line read 1838 not 1839.

No. 10. Second line read Burton not Barton.

Page 41, No. 15. Last line read fourth ch. of (Sherman son of Joel.)

Page 43, No. 21. Eighth line read Sheffield, Warren County not Sheffield County.

Page 46, No. 29. There are 2 Samuel D. Barnes one Nephew to the other, this record commencing after Hartford, in third line gives the ancestry of the Nephew instead of Samuel D. senior with whom we started, he was son of Rev. Romulos fifth line and follows back in the line given for his Nephew.

Obituaries. Page 47. Albert G. Bullock, 4th line read Jane not Janes.
